MacNair's Country Acres

Mission Statement

MacNair's Country Acres strives to provide top quality equine educational opportunities in a safe, beautiful setting where the rider can develop physically and mentally in a lifetime sport while increasing their appreciation of the horse.

Vision Statement

We envision horsemen and horsewomen who have been given the opportunity to reach their potential as well-rounded equestrians.

Our knowledgeable staff works hard at self-improvement, people skills and improving their personal horsemanship. Their enthusiasm for personal growth is inclusive of their work, family and customers.

At MacNair's Country Acres we provide safe successful mounts for riders and provide a fun, family environment where friendships thrive.

The farm is environmentally sensitive containing an abundance of green fields, trees, flowers and ponds

MacNair's Country Acres is a camp specializing in hunt seat riding, horsemanship and fun outdoor activities. We provide a safe, beautiful and wholesome environment where beginner riders can develop a solid foundation in riding and more advanced riders are challenged to improve their riding skills. All riders develop an understanding of horses and horsemanship. Classes are divided into small groups according to rider levels.

The school horses are excellent teachers and students are mounted on horses appropriate to their riding skills. Our beginner horses are very patient and appropriate for teaching new students.

The intermediate and advanced horses are capable of jumping courses and doing advanced flat work.

MacNair's Country Acres is one of the Triangle's oldest privately-owned riding academies and has been teaching Raleigh area residents to ride for more than 40 years.
